FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 2016

LaForce Promotes New Office Manager in Columbus

LaForce, Inc., a leading distributor of doors, frames, hardware, security integration, and building specialties, is pleased to announce the recent promotion of Tim Sizer as Office Manager for its Columbus location.

Sizer has been with the company for nearly ten years. Prior to his promotion, he earned degrees in business and marketing from Bowling Green State University. He worked for 18 years in the art framing industry before starting as a Contract Sales Representative at LaForce. In 2014 he became the Ohio Regional Sales Manager for Contract Sales, where he managed personnel in the Cincinnati and Columbus offices.

The Columbus office for LaForce was officially established in 2013 and has grown in sales volume every year since it opened. In his new role, Sizer is looking forward to sustaining this growth and the rest of LaForce's core values.

Sizer credits his colleagues Tom Gaible, the Cincinnati Office Manager, Pat Connelly, the Director of Contract Sales, and Brian Mannering, President/CEO, for having a profound influence on his development and success.

LaForce is growing at a steady pace and readily promotes its team members. Hard-working individuals looking for long-term stability are encouraged to explore career opportunities at LaForce.
